THE 1951 PLAINSMAN

NEBRASKA WESLEYAN

LINCOLN 4, NEBRASKA

A YEARBOOK justifies itself in being a permanent record of a certain memorable period in our lives. Later on we look at it again and remember.

It is a compilation of events in a form which represents our school, with at least the completeness to suggest the rest. It brings to our attention how very wide the range of activity of the University is. It sharpens the realization that it is impossible for each of us to participate in everything.

As we go through these college years we all find it necessary to concentrate within our special fields, we live in our separate rooms or dorms or houses, we become closely confined within our own organizations and associate with those whose interests are quite close to our own. As time and effort make our pursuits increasingly important to us, it becomes only too simple for us to develop the attitude that our specialties and organizations are the most justifiable, that our way of doing things is the most correct, that our associates are the only ones worth having. Toward things and people not our own, we easily become indifferent, and even contemptuous

. . . . Seeing drawn together in this form so many values to which we personally have not had time to give much attention does something to overcome this feeling. At least it has for us who have classified and shaped and organized this volume, for we have learned how many, many parts there are to this school, and how small and incomplete each separate part is until pieced together into a whole picture.

As we look at this book in retrospect of the year we have just spent, those things in which we have personally participated will bring us the richest memories, and those persons who have participated in the most will find fullest meaning in this book. If it were possible for some person to participate in everything it would be he who would most clearly understand the importance of the whole school and the whole year; for he would see that although every element has its value, the value of them all together is infinitely greater than any single one. He would realize that the University is all of them; and, perhaps, that "society is the union of men and not the men themselves."

DEDICATION

Dr. Carl C. Bracy, who became the eleventh chancellor of Nebraska Wesleyan University on October 13, 1950, is a man of vivid personality with a most scholarly attitude, and an educator of the highest caliber.

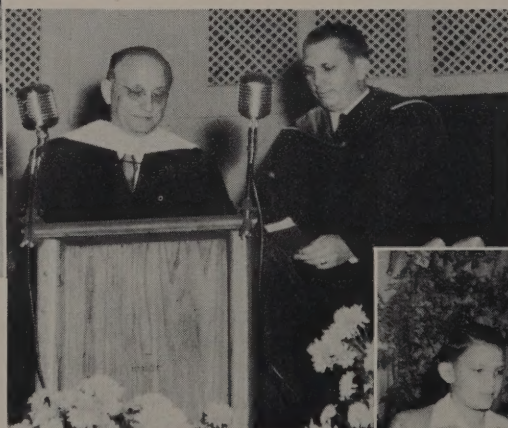

Chan, as he is known to faculty, students, and friends over the nation, is determined to build the university into a position of educational leadership in the mid-west. He has been foremost in conducting the institution through one of its most successful years. In anticipation of a bountiful future with Dr. Bracy, the seniors of N.W.U. dedicate the 1951 Plainsman to his tireless faith and service.

Portrait by Townsend

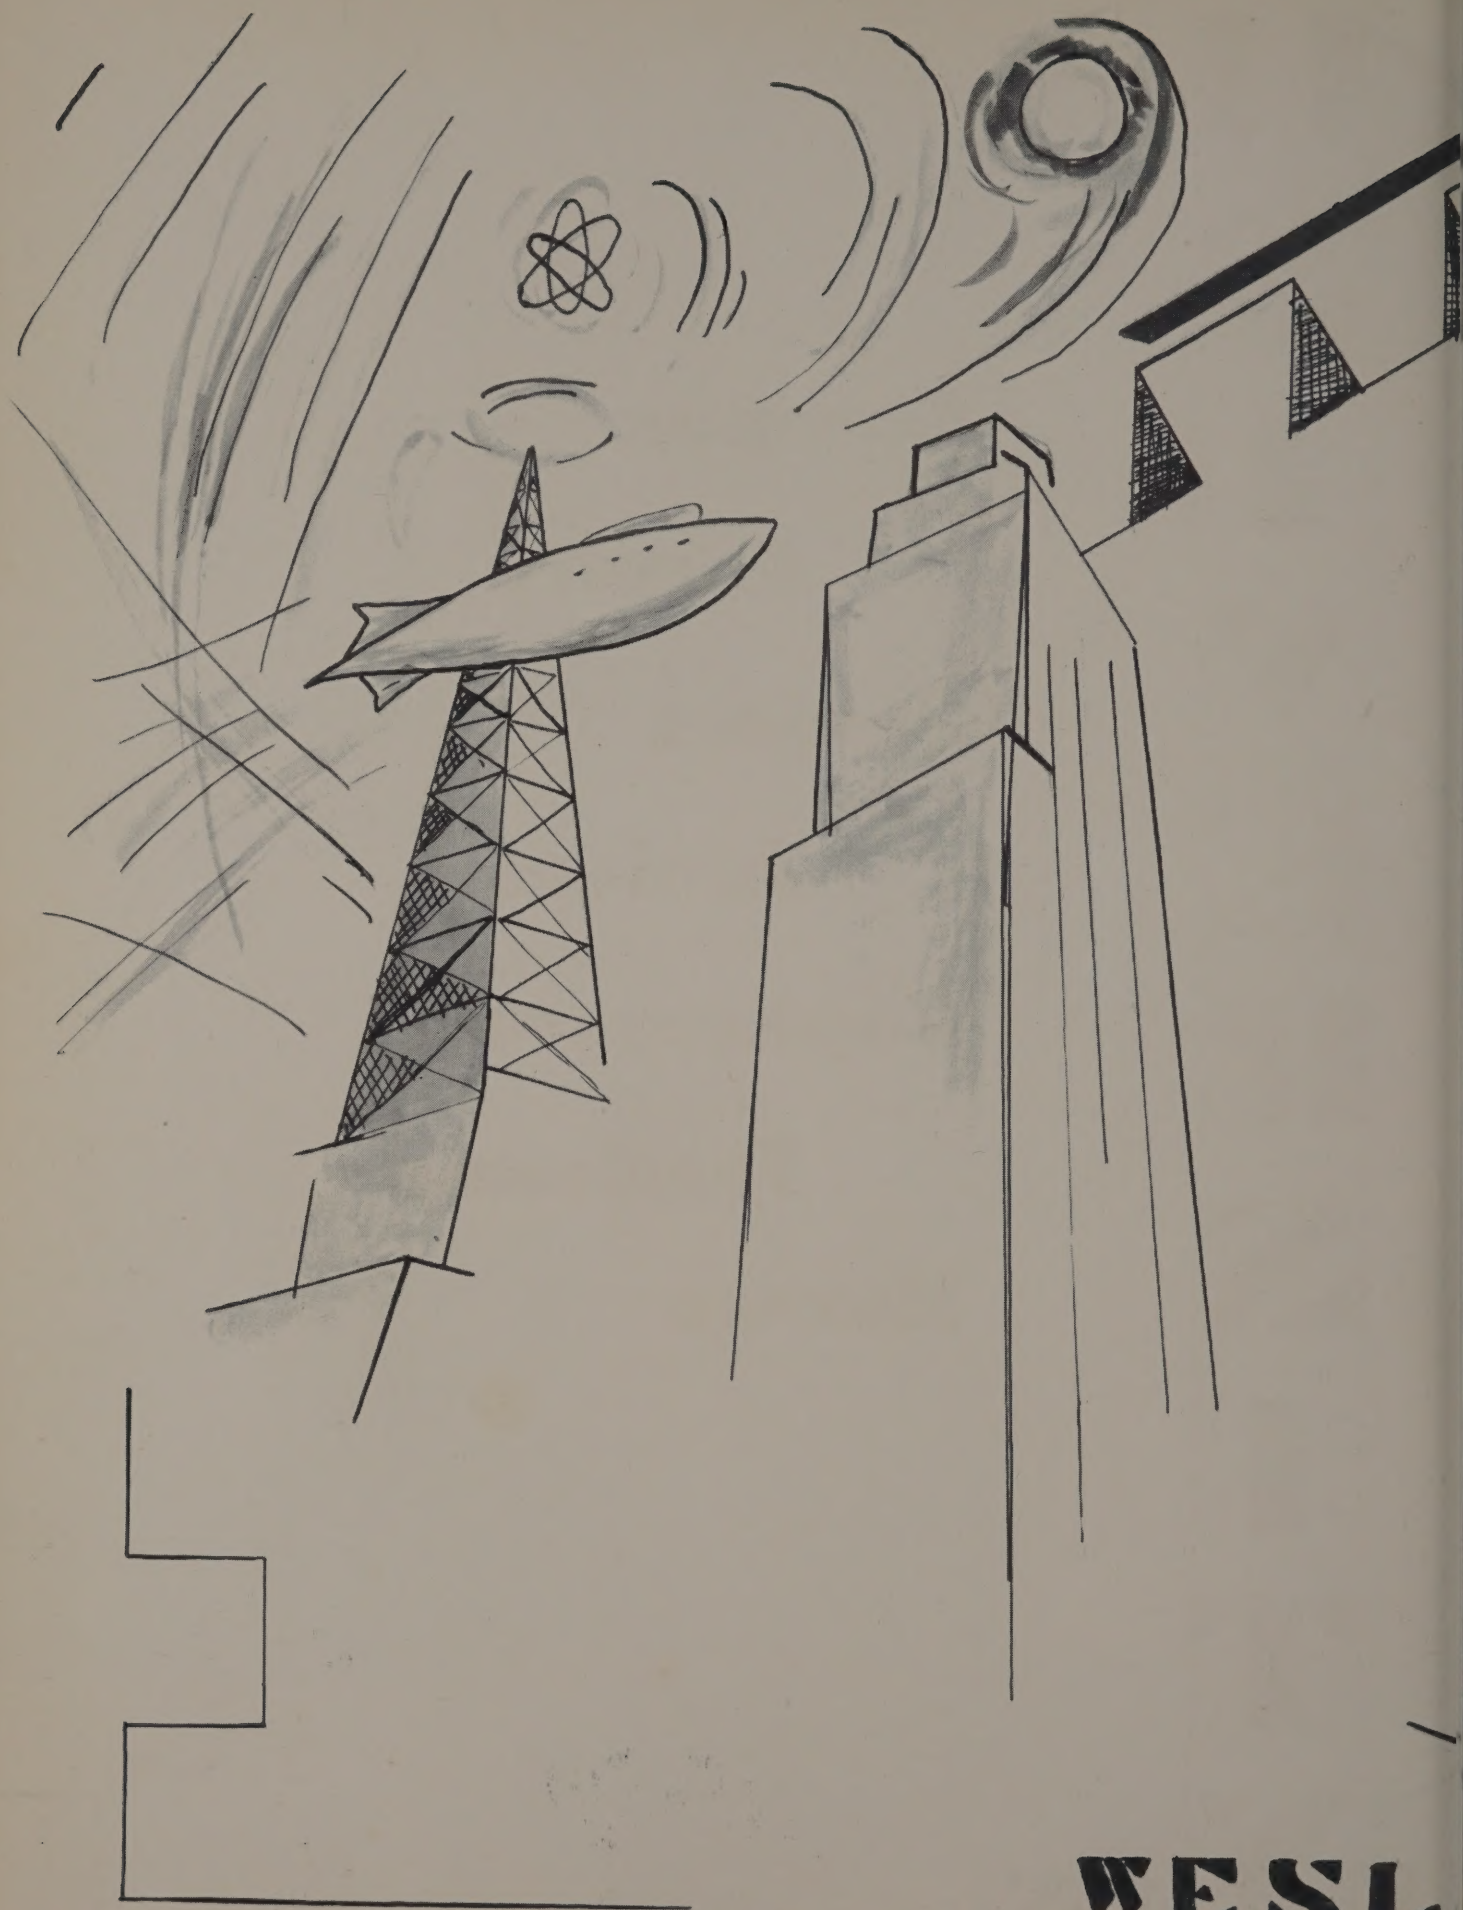

A great day in the life of our Chancellor and a milestone in the history of the school was the inauguration of Carl Cluster Bracy as the eleventh Chancellor of Nebraska Wesleyan University. Visiting dignitaries, faculty, and seniors formed the processional from First Church to C. C. White Auditorium where the charge was given to the new Chancellor by Bishop Dana Dawson. Highlights of the day were the presentation of a thousand dollar check for the building fund at the Inaugural luncheon and the cutting of the huge cake in the form of an open book at the reception.

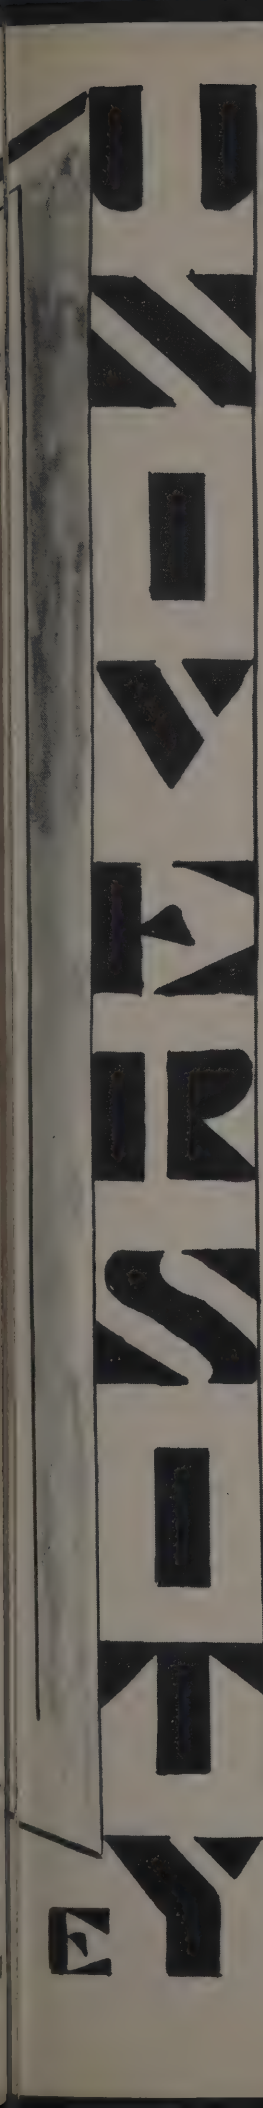

Chancellor Bracy believes in leading a diversified life. As Chancellor he takes an interest in all forms of campus life—from keeping in close contact with the faculty, to meeting new students, to leading the weekly prayer meetings. You can be assured he will have time to spend with his family around the piano for his family and music are two of his main interests. Another important but pleasant duty is supporting the school football team away, as well as at home.

Symbolizing our heritage of Wesleyan traditions is "Old Main," the first building to make an appearance on the campus. At present this landmark of Nebraska Wesleyan contains the administrative offices of the school and is utilized as the principal classroom building.

The largest structure on the campus is the C. C. White Memorial Building. It houses the art department and the studios and practice rooms for vocal and instrumental music. The chapel auditorium, Huntington Hall, the Wayside Chapel, the publications offices, the Student Union, the Snack Bar, and the YM-YWCA room are also located here.

The rendezvous of conscientious scholars is Rachel Ann Lucas Library. The large reading room provides a place for the preparation of daily assignments or for gleaning facts for reports and term papers from the collection of reference materials. A variety of current newspapers and magazines offers lighter material for entertaining reading and information about recent events and current problems.

A modern seismograph and facilities for astronomical observations are located in the Rose Memorial Observatory. This scientific laboratory is a memorial to Charles Dunham Rose, former professor of mathematics and astronomy.

Comfortable living quarters for one hundred freshman women are afforded by Johnson Residence Hall. This beautiful new dormitory was made possible by the gifts of the late Mr. A. L. Johnson and many other loyal friends of Nebraska Wesleyan.

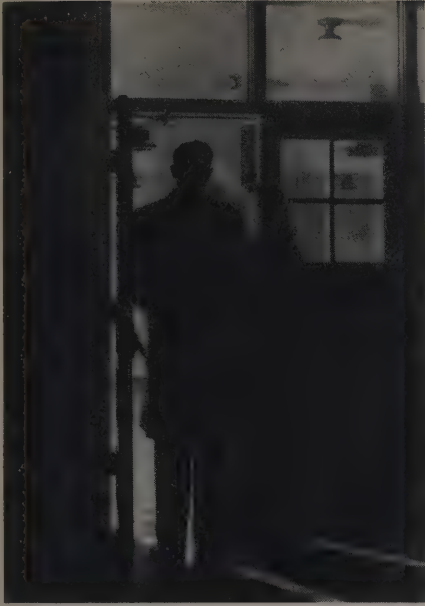

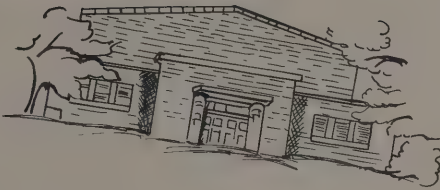

The Van Fleet Science Hall, as its name implies, houses the departments of physics and chemistry. The building has recently undergone remodeling in order to serve more adequately the needs of these departments.

Situated across the street from the campus, First Methodist Church affords many opportunities for the development of student religious life. Each student is encouraged to participate in the Methodist Student Movement and other church activities throughout his college years.

The Plainsman Theater affords Wesleyan speech facilities unsurpassed by any comparable school in the midwest. This new brick edifice was erected in 1947 and is a distinctive feature of the south side of the campus. In addition to the stage and main auditorium, smaller rooms are specially equipped for and practice and instruction in such fields as radio speech and drama, debate, and private speech lessons.

Varsity basketball practice and various indoor intramural sports, as well as the offices of the athletic administrative personnel, find their place in the Wesleyan gymnasium. Because the gym is deemed unsafe for capacity crowds, varsity basketball games are being played off the campus this season.

The O.N. Magee Stadium, with a seating capacity of five thousand, includes an attractive field house equipped with locker rooms, showers, and offices.

DEAN OF FACULTY

Dr. Roy W. Deal, Dean of Faculty and Professor of Psychology, pauses meditatively at his desk in Old Main. His duties include co-ordination of student and faculty activities and guidance counselling for students.

Dean Deal has served Wesleyan since 1919 as a professor, an administrator, and a friend and is esteemed as a pillar of stability in the organization of Nebraska Wesleyan University.

DEAN OF CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

Scheduling the major school activities and planning the vacation dates are some of the jobs handled by Dr. Rudolph L. Fredstrom, Dean of Campus Activities and Professor of Education.

In 1946, Dean Fredstrom came to the Wesleyan campus from the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction. His duties as head of the Wesleyan Teacher Placement Bureau compel him very frequently to assume the pose depicted in the photograph above.

DEAN OF WOMEN

Want to have a party? Here is the lady to consult. The campus social calendar is under the direction of Miss Ethel M. Johnson, Dean of Women and assistant professor of English.

A newcomer to the Wesleyan campus, Dean Johnson held a corresponding position at Bethany College of Lindsborg, Kansas, last year. Her picture was snapped as she was perusing the rules and regulations pertinent to Wesleyan co-eds.

If your chapel attendance has been erratic, beware this man. Clinton B. Gass, Dean of Men, metes out disciplinary action when necessary but actually is very friendly and understanding.

Dean Gass joined the Wesleyan faculty as professor of mathematics in 1943 and assumed the additional duty of Dean of Men in 1947. Pictured below in his new office in Old Main, he interrupts his work to give the photographer a moment of his time.

Plainsman football hopefuls first met their new coach Roy "Robbie" Robertson who with the assistance of coaches "Pete" Peterson, ex-Wesleyan gridders Jim Varney, Bob Ketterer, and Cliff Squires began team workouts.

Lew Walker and Don Hull were among the first returning lettermen to check out the new plastic headgears.

Thousands of man-hours were put into the training—blocking, in the backfield. As it grew dark Robbie always had a word of advice and encouragement.

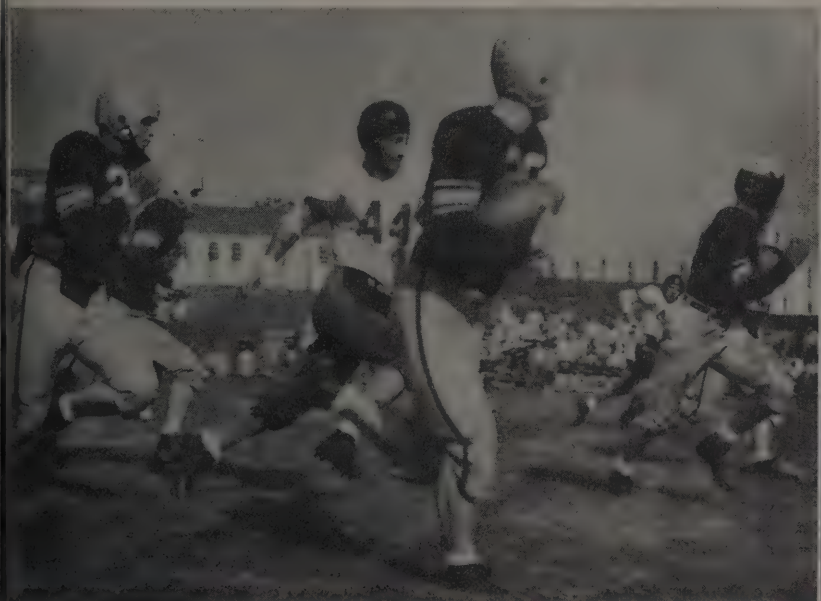

The second step of the '50 season was to check out equipment as did Ray Owen, senior end from Ashland.

By then the freshmen had met many new friends; pictured are "Doc" Allely, Jim Lightbody, and Jack Woods.

The initial test with Omaha University began with hard running action but the big crafty Omaha men soon took over with multiple tackling as shown below.

West to Colorado Springs, the booming of aerial bombs after each TD, Dick Hadsell's shoulder injured, "Mike" Buie and five Wesleyan men driving half the night to see the game—memories.

The homecoming victory over Hastings was a thrilling 20-14 battle.

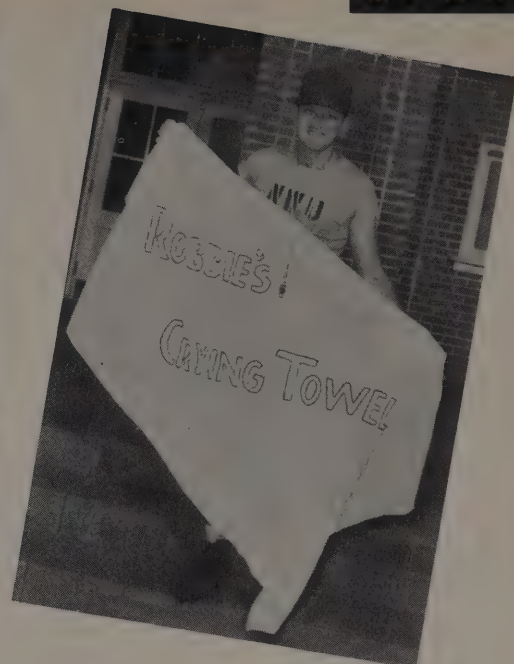

"Pete" was top man in the wrap and tape department while trainer Hanna wields the heat lamp over Ray Owen.

Ever wondered what went on in the dressing rooms at halftime? Robbie uses the time to plan strategy for the next half.

Doane swept us off our feet, literally, in a surprise 21-13 game. The next day Robbie brought out his towel for all good Wesleyan rooters.

The season progressed, Wesleyan watched her men ring up several more victories. At thanksgiving vacation, they added Kansas Wesleyan to the defeated ranks; Bob Gentry was seriously injured in this game.

"B" squad players got their share of bruises but not their share of acclaim for just as tough battles as the varsity played. Their efforts are the core of future teams.

The last move of the season was to check in with equipment manager Bill Abney, and with a nostalgic look back, the book was closed on another season. Not-to-be-forgotten is the spirited trainer Dick Hanna.

Arlene Stetina and Gordon Hamilton, as Lydia and Carl Greenleaf, seem to be having trouble in this scene from "Respectfully Yours."

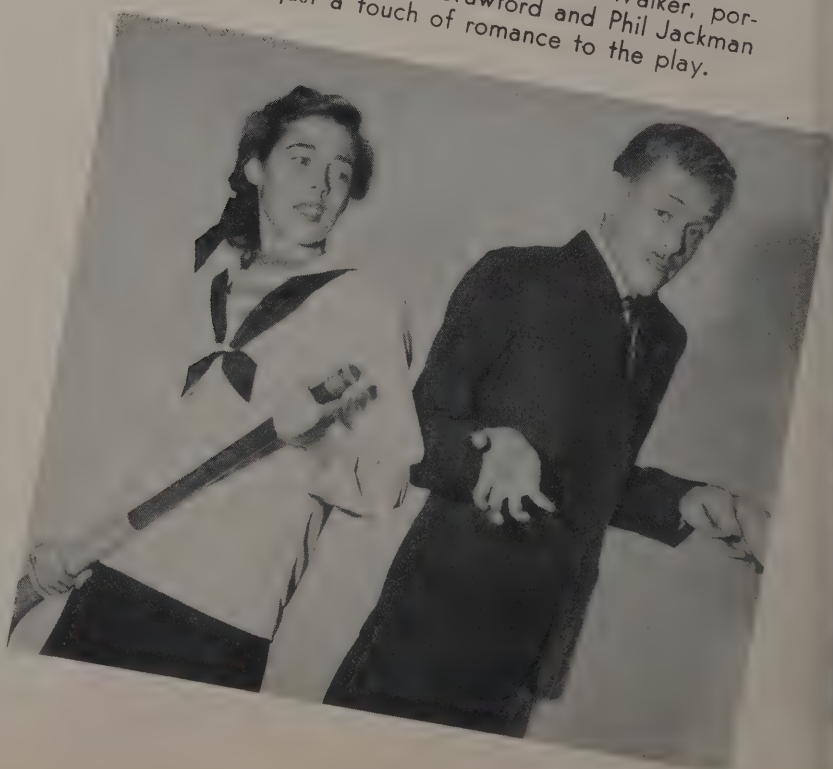

Opening the 1950-51 dramatic season at Nebraska Wesleyan was Peggy Lamson's delightful comedy "Respectfully Yours." The entire action of the play took place in the living room of a Harvard professor's home around the turn of the century. The plot centers around Lydia Greenleaf, who as wife of the professor, writes a book without her husband's knowledge and involves herself in the fight for women's suffrage.

Connie Greenleaf and Alan Walker, portrayed by Joyce Crawford and Phil Jackman add just a touch of romance to the play.

The only serious drama presented during the season was "Command Decision" by William Wister Haines. This powerful Air Force drama is unique in that the cast was composed entirely of men. "Command Decision" centers in the conflict surrounding Brigadier General K. C. Dennis when his command is impinged upon by Major General Kane. Casey is caught between the forces of higher command, government, and military rivalry on the one hand and responsibility to his colleagues and subordinates on the other.

Tech. Sgt. Harold Evans, Major Gen. R. G. Kane, Brigadier Gen. C. C. Garnett, Col. Ernest Haley, portrayed by Fred Bieck, Bob Kuester, Roland Barron, and John Turner, listen intently as Brigadier Gen. K. C. Dennis, Tom Keating, points out the target for tomorrow.

Gwendolyn Fairfax and Jack Worthing, Evalyn Mickel and Dwight Smith, are caught this time not by Lady Bracknell but by the photographer.

Through a thoroughly delightful and positively absurd ambiguity of cognomens, Oscar Wilde supplied the plot of a classic farce for Wesleyan's third play of the year, "The Importance of Being Earnest." The dialogue was the play; the wit for which Wilde is famous saturated every line. Algernon makes this flip observation "The only way to behave to a woman is to make love to her if she is pretty, and to someone else if she is plain."

Closing the Plainsman season was J. M. Barrie's "What Every Woman Knows." The plot centers around the development of a humorless young Scotchman whose great political success is due entirely to his wife. The philosophy of the play is summed up by Maggie when she says, "Charm—it's a sort of a bloom on a woman, if you have it, you don't have to have anything else; if you don't have it, it doesn't much matter what else you have."

Our own "Doc Miller's" script, "The Bugle's Last Calling" was presented in this year of 1951, as one of the most unique of all road shows. After three or four daily performances, the tour relaxed in the pine clad mountains of the Ozarks.

The road show is composed of select and versatile entertainers. Wesleyan is proud of the reputation Road Show has made on it's tours throughout Nebraska and surrounding states.

President Jeanne Brillhart informed us that Theta Alpha Phi is a national honorary dramatic fraternity, organized in 1919 with 43 chapters all over the United States. Nebraska Alpha was installed at Wesleyan in 1923.

T.A.P. sponsors four major productions each year, Plainsman Players, and all other dramatic activities of the Plainsman Theater. Qualification for membership is based upon a point system earned by long hours of hard work. New members are tapped each spring and initiated at the annual banquet in May.

PI KAPPA DELTA

Phi Kappa Delta, national honorary forensic fraternity, has 100 chapters in 40 states. The Wesleyan Chapter was installed in 1920. The National Tournament was held in Stillwater, Oklahoma, March 25-29.

This year the PKD squad took the top honors in every meet entered—Ada, Oklahoma; Manhattan, Kansas; Doane; University of Nebraska; the trophies in the picture are the ones captured at Emporia, Kansas.

Among the great minds here at Nebraska Wesleyan, there are a number of greater minds whose diligence, leadership and scholarship have elevated them to the ranks of Phi Kappa Phi, national honorary scholastic society. Open to honor students in all departments of American universities and colleges, Phi Kappa Phi is one of the highest recognitions available to students. Fifteen of Wesleyan's faculty are members, elected during their college careers.

BLUE KEY

Remember the auction in chapel of the Willard Pledges, Burl Kreps clothes, the key to Johnson Hall and similar useful items. The men of Blue Key, national honorary society, and their 'partners-in-fun' Cardinal Key literally sold the student body on the "All Sports Banquet" idea in order to honor all Wesleyan athletes.

Blue Key is, in essence, a society of men who, because of scholarship, campus participation, and leadership, must be recognized as the leaders of tomorrow.

UNIVERSITY PLACE NEWS, for party and wedding invitations, stationery, and all student needs.

President of this, secretary of that, editorship, leadership, scholarship—all are found in Cardinal Key, junior and senior women's honorary society. Suspense is the "key" word in the novel method of tapping new members twice each year. In addition to the thrill of being elected, the neophytes are treated to one of Mrs. Brant's home-cooked banquets.

The new sorority preferences are the most anxious to see these silver-caped coeds, for they are the messengers of the sorority bids. Both Homecoming and May Fete are included in the activities which the Cardinal Key help sponsor.

WHO

Few people connected with Wesleyan will have to ask "Who are these people," for these ten seniors are primarily the ones with the most rounded college careers, along with superior scholarship.

Participation in campus activities is but one prerequisite for eligibility in "Who's Who In American Universities and Colleges." Because the members were so busy that one time could not be set when all could meet together, the pictures had to be divided.

THETA NU

Pursuit of the medical sciences qualifies Wesleyan pre-med students to the University of Nebraska chapter of Nu Med, national pre-med society. Of this group, the "brains" qualify for further fraternal membership in the national honorary pre-med fraternity, Theta Nu. The anatomy skeleton from the biology department is an unofficial, non-voting member.

"Howdy" says Dean Lanning as do all the Campus Orientation Group. Known on the campus as Cogs, these seniors spend their first weeks at school in the fall helping the new students adjust to college life.

This group is always on hand to show off the merits of our school to visiting high school students during the year. To sell Wesleyan to future students is an important duty of this group.

COGS

As senior orator, Senate president Parker makes good use of his administrative ability.

"Chocolate malt, please, Mary"
—Familiar words along with the familiar music of the juke box in the Snack Bar.

Just loafin'—making good use of the new Student Union furniture.

"May the best and most draft-exempt man win," says incumbent president Bill Parker to candidates Tom Waring and Martin Luschei.

Receipient of the moans and groans of the students, their organizations, the faculty and administration is the Student Senate. Besides being the co-ordinator the Senate is in charge of the newly redecorated student union and snack bar, school dances, student elections, and traditions day.

Johann, Bullock, Larson, Chapin, Wallis, Manley, Miss Johnson, Hueftle.

Governing Board

Above: Who's next on trial? No, you can't defend your girl for getting her in late.

Womens House Council

Below: If you don't like the rules see us. These are the girls that represent you and have a part in formulating hours for women.

Interfraternity Council

As coordinators of fraternity policies, problems were alleviated by this group.

Hedges, Jones, Harvey, Gass, Haye, Conway, Carlson.

Panhellenic Council

Inter-sorority girls discover they can work harmoniously in planning fun for all.

Part of this fun for all is the annual Panhellenic Ball held at the Turnpike.

Chaperones are: Reynolds, Phi Mu; Benning, Crescent; Miss Johnson, Dean; Eberhart, Johnson Hall; Clark, Professor of Education; Luschei, Registrar; Davison, Delta Zeta; Dowell, Phi Tau; Pauley, Alpha Gam.

JOHNSON HALL

Home away from home—deluged with memories of joy, sadness, friendships, fun, telephone calls, water fights and all the exuberance of youth—nostalgic spot in the memories of ex-residents—remember the first time you met your roommate—remember the birthday party for her—the one that lasted till four in the morning.

Remember the girl who got engaged—and thrown into the showers. The nights of studying—so few and so short. Do you girls recall the scurry to clean the rooms for the Open House at Homecoming—then the water fights that ensued once in a while until everyone was soaked—Remember? ? ?

JOHNSON HALL

Now that you are looking back, how short this year was—but how long it seemed then—meeting the wonderful councilors—the head resident—learning the phone system—everyone's name—moving the furniture—the 'coke' dates and rushing—the excitement of preferencing—a snap of the fingers—November and the Johnson Hall Formal.

Another snap of the fingers—Thanksgiving—Christmas—the Pan Hellenic Ball and the All-night party. Remember returning with all your presents—going out in the snow—spring rains—the firesides and house meetings—the warm days—the long walks—meeting the big fraternity man—classes—meetings—extracurricular activities—busy, busy, busy.—And now only memories. . . .

"It's fun being a councilor"—so the smiles of Joan McInnis, Ruth Wallace, Mary Story, Nancy Osborne, Ruth Lenhart agree.

We can prove to you teachers are human and that we are proud of our profession!

Association for Childhood Education is a professional organization for elementary teachers.

Countess Valeria Czaky, formerly of Hungary, spoke about conditions of displaced persons.

"Oh look at the pictures!" Youngsters from White Hall happily accept color books as valentine gifts from future teachers.

Standing: Kats, Wilder, Kotouc, Touzalin, Miss Lux, Nisley. Seated: Hueftle, Carlson, Tiekotter.

"I don't think I could get the hardness of the steel in that spur again" quotes Elmer C. Gruenig, the Nebraska artist famed for his ability to interpret life of the sand hill region. Art club sponsors such exhibits as this throughout the year. This year featured art brought to us from Denmark, Italy and other parts of Europe.

Back row: Kats, Nisley, Kotouc, Wilder, Touzalin.

W. A. A.

Row One: Sage, Kahl, Eckels, Wiseman, Wiltse, Kotouc, Sugden, Moore. Row Two: Ruby, Link, Branz, Wilder, Johann, Embree, Mrs. Brandt, Clifton, Linder, Frantz, Sheets, Grundman, TeSelle.

Women's Athletic Association—Sounds dull, doesn't it? But there's a surprise in store for all who might think so. The freshman girls discover this at the first activity of the season, a party especially for them. A sports-minded Wesley-ann will find enjoyment participating in intramurals—earning points either for membership or for that much treasured sweater.

Men are included, too, when the W.A.A. "spinter's" have their one big "spree" in the Spring.

Physical efficiency, mastery of sports, these are important, but most of all, we strive for sportsmanship at its best. "It isn't whether you win or lose; it's how you play the game."

Five outstanding W.A.A. members earned sweaters this year. They are Martha Clifton, Pat Johann, Blythe Linder, Delores Peterson and Roberta Embree.

W CLUB

Fourth row: Walker, Wickstrom, Gustafson, Whitaker, Zink, Kropp, Allen, Morgan.
 Third row: "Robbie", Gustafson, Lewis, Williams, Allely, Fosbender, Mart, Sheary. Second row: Fitch, Gentry, Krep, Gaston, Waring, Weigers, Frazell, Weston. First row: Harding, Carriker, Hull, DuBois, Owen, Harrington, Becker.

The most widely recognized men are the Plainsman athletes who proudly display a large yellow and brown 'W' on their sweaters signifying that they have earned a letter in one of the major sports at Wesleyan.

W club president Don Harrington fumbles with the box containing the traditional locket for W Club Sweetheart Roberta Embree.

A Freshman Retreat each fall—morning matins at Christmas and Easter—faculty firesides—discussion series on Love, Engagement, and Marriage—W. S. S. F. drive—clothing drive—committee on Effective Citizenship—these projects by the busy "Y" members brighten campus life and render assistance to less fortunate students in other lands.

Ray Ramsey of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce cavorts to stimulate attention to the WSSF.

These varied activities are a part of the "Y" program of service, fellowship, and worship aimed toward developing Christian personality and building a Christian society. One of every three Wesleyan students is a proud participant in this Christian movement which builds for a better future for all of us.

"Handclasp across the seas," assisted by Krogh and Nuetzman, signifies that the W. S. S. F. goal has been reached.

Mr. Colon and Mrs. Swinbank lead a discussion on that ever-timely topic, "Love".

Lloyd Bliss leads the last Christmas matin.

MSM Cabinet—Back row: Burns, Olson, Barron, Ferris, Hueftle, Frye, Perisho, Hawley.
Front row: Kats, Willms, Walker, Kahl, Fry, Marsh.

METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT

Several homonyms describe the part played by First Church's Methodist Student Movement: Fellowship, worship, friendship; maturity, activity; good will, God's will; recreation, visitation.

Food for the body plus food for the soul.

"Will I get big like you?"

"Gee, it's nice to know somebody cares."

KAPPA CHI

Kappa Chi provides opportunity, for those interested in full time Christian service, to build a firmer foundation for their work through bi-monthly meetings.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

E. Stanley Jones, world famous religious writer and international relations worker, counsels with IRC leaders Ken Rogers and Martin Luschei.

Voicing the ideas for better international understanding are Wayne Brown, John Mills, Fred Bieck, Phil Jackman, and Arlene Stetina.

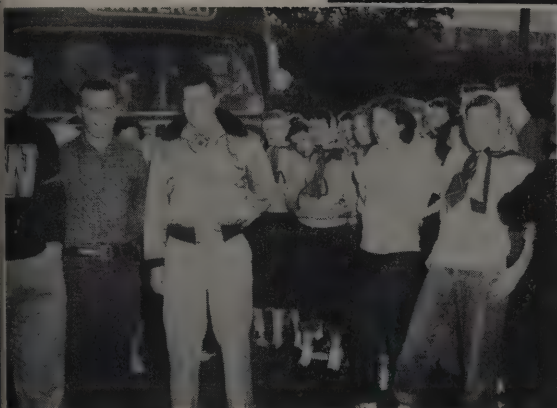

United Nations at N. W. U.—a heart-warming handclasp between Ethiopian Kassa Michael, Hawaiian Hatsuki Tani, Bob Bushnell, Martin Luschei, Werner Hoffman from Germany and Julia Ruiz from Puerto Rico just before they left on their good will tour of Nebraska last spring.

THE 1951

Business Manager—Bob Clark.

This 49th volume is the result of cumulative headaches; decrease in size of enrollment which meant decrease in size of adequate staff and of budget, which meant a decrease in size of the book. However, the length, coverage and quality have been greatly increased.

Recognition and thanks must be given to the numerous typists, the faculty and administration, the advertisers, assistant copy editors Ray Owen, Dolores Sugden, Registrar Helen Luschei, Vic Fletcher and Ed Glass, artists, Jacob North and Co., and those who cooperated so patiently.

WESLEYAN

Editor—Lois Clark

Assistant Editor—Marian Moomey

That room with three tables shoved together and cluttered unbelievable with papers, typewriters, empty coke glasses, and weary, but slap happy students—that is "The Wesleyan" staff room.

More unbelievable than the mess they make is the fact that they actually, one way or another, meet the deadline each week—even though they never seem to be working, after each Thursday chapel the student body rushes eagerly (?) for "The Wesleyan"—an All-American college paper.

Sports Editor—Eldon Heskett

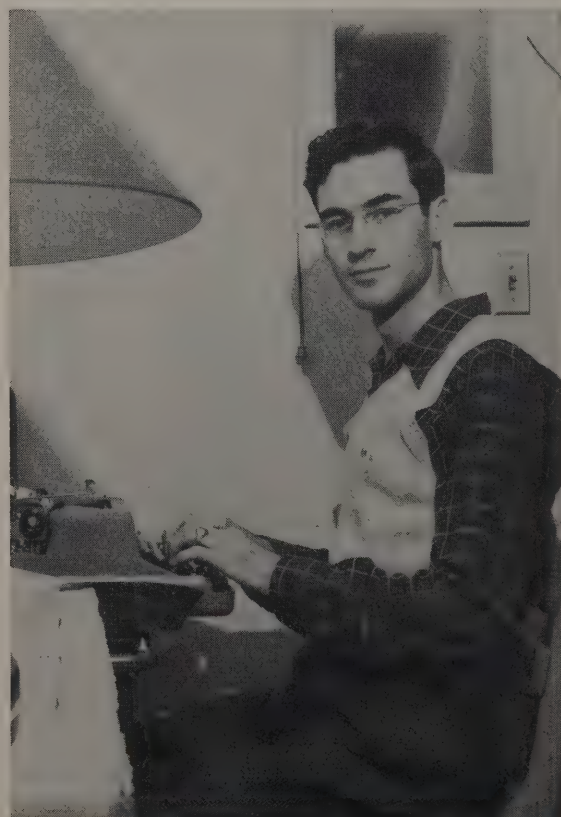

Colon and Clark find Chicago a little antiquated when attending the Press convention there.

Publications Faculty Advisor—Vincente Colon.

Jack-of-all-trades and master-of-many is the man on whose shoulder the editors wept and pounded. Beginning the year as Professor of Spanish and Publications faculty advisor, Professor Colon was advanced the position of Director of Student Promotion at second semester. From that time on, his speedy new Ford covered many miles visiting prospective Wesleyanites.

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

AS HE APPEARS:

Keeping NWU in the news.

The man who knows all Wesleyan news, sees all Wesleyan news, and tells all Wesleyan news is Fred Hess, director of Public Relations. In recognition of his outstanding achievement in the field of college sports publicity last year, he was awarded the "All-American" recognition by the Helms Athletic Foundation.

For the men of Crescent, 1951 has been a red-letter year. Through the unselfish efforts of alumni and actives, one of the fondest Crescent dreams came true, a beautiful new house.

Besides contributing to varsity athletics, Crescents excelled in interfraternity competition; winning football, the turkey race, basketball, and homecoming decorations.

The new house served as host to many hour dances, topped by the colorful Bowery Party and the spring banquet and dance. Several traditional bear dances wound their picturesque way over the campus, honoring newly engaged Crescents.

Crescents contributed to campus life by providing leadership in forensics, music, and student government. All in all the year's activities exemplified the Crescent ideals of Brotherhood, Character, and Service.

These things we'll remember—the path from Old Main to the door of the big white house at the corner of 50 and Madison—crisp, fall days, our hayrack ride Harvest Mood party—the pride when both Marty Clifton and "Mim" Jackman were elected to Phi Kappa Phi—the Panhellenic Ball, exchanging our Christmas gifts and joining other houses in late caroling—the shining diamond solitaires and pinnings that came up all during the year—our own wonderful Rose Formal and Mark Weidler, our Delta Zeta Man—the joyous occasion when we received the Panhellenic Scholarship Trophy—the pride again when our own "Jackie" won the Lincoln Symphony Audition—the last event of the year, honoring our seniors, the May Breakfast—these are the things that make us proud and happy to be Delta Zetas.

As every year, Phi Kappa Tau made the mark of progress upon its record. We like to remember some of our accomplishments and say, "Well Done." We like to remember the television set, the new radio, new china, or even the new piano and say, "Fine house improvements". Too, we remember the many activities . . . presidents of Interfraternity Council, Blue Key, Kappa Kappa Psi, and Sigma Pi Sigma, plus our share of participants in all school activities . . . But, do all of these things really make a fraternity great? No, not entirely. We also think that it is the fellowship of living together in a congenial atmosphere where the warm friendship, cooperation, and spirit of unity, that makes college days the days that are never forgotten.

Third row: Slosson, Scrimsher, Duer, VonBergen, Larsen, Goth, Goldammer, Brown, Knabe, Bengston, Drake.

Never a dull moment — parties, fire-sides, serenades, and studies all help to keep a constant buzz of excitement at the Phi Mu house. Some of the highlights of the year have been the pledge party Treasure Hunt, the "Rhapsody in Blue" formal, our birthday dinners, three Crescent-Phi Mu pin-nings, and our all-night Christmas party. Little things we'll never forget are the kitchen raids and that squeak in the refrigerator door, Cyd's fall in the dorm, and phone calls exceeding five minutes . . . Our presi-dent, Ardie Wiseman, was elected into Cardinal Key and also held the gavel for Panhellenic Council — Pat Peters retained her title as beauty queen for the second year—Sara Harris was a member of the Road Show troupe—Jane Goth was the Yellers of the Brown prexy—while JoAnn Lind was one of the cheerleaders—Nancy Stooker and Bev Wilder strutted before the Plainsman Band.

It was another big year for Theta Chi—Especially do we remember Dean Lanning's famous remark "—Now what I've got her isn't Phi Taus or Crescents, these are Men! —" As a matter of fact, we hardly ever got to see Paul and Milt, what with debate trips to Oklahoma, Kansas, Minnesota, New York—and McCook. We had our share of fun, too—Remember the Orchid Formal, when we picked "Kelly" TeSelle for our Dream Girl? And the inevitable "Dunking Festival", where pinned and engaged Theta Chis enjoyed a plunge in the cool, clear waters of Pioneer Park lake. How about the 5007 Club party, or the Linoma Beach Picnic. Or Founder's Day, when old Delts and younger Theta Chis gathered to talk over the times. Or the Pledge party, the rides in Den's "convert", and those impromptu "birthday baths"—they're what make us feel really proud to say, "Sure, I'm a Theta Chi."

From the preference party in early fall to the Willard May Day, this year for Willard was packed with exciting events to remember. Engagements (thirteen pinned and engaged Willards, plus two married); serenades (both official and unofficial); fire-sides (we boast the hardest floors for sleeping on the campus); gracious and understanding Mother Allen; the best cook ever, "Daisy"; and parties (a ranch party with jeans, boots, saddles, and wagon wheels)—these are what Willards will remember, as well as the disappointments, accomplishments, and a will shared by all to strive for high ideals.

Anytime, and anywhere on Wesleyan's campus, one is likely to hear the friendly greetings from the Barbs. These are the unaffiliated students, interested and active in every phase of campus life. Through the organization, these students accomplish together what they can only hope for individually. They sincerely offer any student the democratic friendship that is a vital part of Wesleyan tradition.

Highlights of this Barb year were the masquerade party, the big Christmas formal, and the Spring Nocturne formal with the selection of Nancy Osborne and Stan Ganzel as Barb Sweetheart and Beau.

The judges of the finalists, Magee, Holiday, Randol, Freeman and Johnson, ponder over their decisions.

Religion plays an important part in the lives of students here at Wesleyan. The student population swells the congregation of First Methodist Church. Leaving First Church are Grosseohme, Hartley, Farmer, and Benedict.

Four couples of steadies hold a private singfest rather than braving the elements are: Harrington, Kellough, Embree, Bullock, Wiltse; (at the piano) Thober, Brillhart, Larson.

Lucky is the fellow whose date is always prompt. Ready for a gay evening are Hedges, Conway, Betzelberger, Warner, and Condon.

Hour dances are sandwiched in between school and evening dates. Couples pictured at one of these affairs are: Slossen, Borders, Whiting, Branz, Peters and Whipple.

Regardless of the weather, a final, fond, lingering good night at the door of "her" home is traditional as Allely and Johnson illustrate.

Many evening hours are spent just sitting around the fireplace, popping corn and talking. Cutler, Johann, Johnson, Love, Dunn, Sugden.

The Student Union is a popular place to gather for cokes and coffee as Hultquist, Goth, Lucke, and Grell can testify.

Now and then there are special evenings. Hutchings adjust an carring while Stone stands by with cape and bag.

These caricatures of various Wesleyan faculty have provided numerous chuckles to students and the individuals themselves during the year, so in review let us reflect with endearing memories these who so skillfully guides us. Because these sketches by artist Fletcher appeared as a weekly feature of "The Wesleyan", not all could be placed in the faculty section and not all will be available before our printing deadline date. Please forgive us. Ed.
